

MONORAILS OF THE WORLD

A History of Passenger Monorails

by David Voice

Published by Adam Gordon

Front Cover: The Tama Toshi monorail that opened in 1998 and runs between Tama and Higashiyamato in the western suburbs of Tokyo, Japan. (Fg2 (PD)).

Back Cover

Upper: Probably the most famous suspended monorail in the world, the Schwebbahn in Wuppertal, Germany. (Geoffrey Tribe)

Lower: Mixing Tutankhamen, Karnak Temple and a monorail could only happen in Las Vegas. The Mandalay Bay Monorail opened in 1999 to connect the hotel/casinos of Mandalay Bay, Luxor and Excalibur. (Doppelmayr)

£25.00

ISBN 978-1-874422-81-5

9 781874 422815 >